

Pat Petrini - Financially Free at 23

Prior to joining XanGo, I was a sales rep with a large international marketing company selling high-quality kitchen cutlery. Although I was making a good income ($8-10K per month) and paying my way through school, I was attracted to network marketing because of the residual nature of the income.

My first experience in MLM was with a company that sold hundreds of household products online. After investing thousands of dollars into training and product over 6 months, I earned around $60 in cumulative commissions. I was working hard but I was not seeing the success I felt I deserved and I didn't know why.

In August of 2004, Tammy Swanson, asked me to meet with Bob and Barbara Schmidt to hear about XanGo. Reluctantly, I agreed...thank goodness!

Bob encouraged me to ask the hard questions and make an objective comparison between XanGo and the other company. Again, I was resistant because of the time and money I had already invested, as well as the relationships I had developed in the other company. After making an honest comparison, however, I could no longer justify spending my time and money with the other company...I had to make the switch to XanGo.

Within one year, my residual income from XanGo was able to fully pay my bills and I was out of the 'rat race' at the age of 23. Within two years, my annual XanGo income surpassed the six-figure mark and my monthly income was higher than any I had earned prior. Thanks to XanGo, I have been able to travel extensively within the U.S. and abroad – Aruba, Mexico, Europe, Morocco, Thailand, Egypt, Argentina, ski trips to Vail and Tahoe, a Caribbean cruise and multiple trips to Hawaii to name a few. In fact, of my first 2½ years in XanGo, 6 months were spent on vacations around the world while my residual income continued to climb!

The geographic flexibility of my XanGo business allows me to work from anywhere in the world as long as I have my cell phone. I can just as easily work from my condo in Mexico or while backpacking around South America as I can from my home in Reno, Nevada. I love being in business with my friends and family and my business has grown nearly every month since the day I started.

I'm proud to be a part of this industry and grateful to be associated with this company. It doesn't get any better than this!
