As you can see, my hand was not burned as bad as my face was. I decided to use Mangosteen Juice on my face (see picture) and do what the hospital and doctor told me to do on my hand. If you look at the last picture, you can see how much faster my face healed in comparison. I was told initially that recovery could be as much as 4 - 6 months, and to get used to the idea of a full beard for a while...I shaved exactly 7 days after the accident. Wayne 'The Xanman' Ellis
